Mrs. V. J. Williams, Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Friend: Please find enclosed check for three dollars as a benefit for your Domestic Training School. I believe you are doing more for the uplift of the race than any other colored woman in Kansas City. You should have the moral and financial support of every thinking Negro in this city.

With best wishes for your continued success, I remain,

Yours respectfully,

THEO. SMITH.

Kansas City, Mo., March 30, 1915.

Dear Mr. Smith: Your letter containing the check for three dollars has been duly received; and I wish to thank you very kindly for your kindness in sending me this check and also, for the words of commendation contained in your letter. During the six years I have been struggling along with my work, always hoping for further success, you are the first colored man who has aided me or lent words of praise, and it truly gives one a renewed belief in our motto, "Uplifting as we climb," to have one of your own race show sympathy with your work.

Again thanking you I wish to remain,

Yours very truly,

MRS. V. J. WILLIAMS.

DEATH OF MRS. C. H. PENDLETON

Mrs. Pendleton was born in Louisiana in 1882, and died in Kansas City, Mo., Saturday night, March 27, at 11:15 o'clock at the family residence, 2459 Vine street. She had been ill for the past three years, but not confined to her bed. She was seen outside of her home by several of her friends Saturday evening and talked with them. About 7:30 p. m. while talking with Mrs. Georgia Logan and her husband, Mr. Engel Logan, and Mrs. Anna Foster, it was discovered by Mrs. Logan that the death angel had come to relieve her of her long suffering. Mr. and Mrs. Logan remained as long as they could and then departed for their home. Mrs. Pendleton retired to bed at 8:45 and about 10:45 she asked that her husband call the family physician, Dr. Howard M. Smith. He was immediately called and gave her emergency treatment, and after a short visit left to have a prescription filled, but before this could be done Mrs. Pendleton had passed into the great beyond, her husband being at the bedside at the time. Her end was peaceful. She was a member of Centennial church and has been an active worker until her illness prevented. She leaves to mourn her loss a host of admiring and devoted friends, a husband, a father, brother, two sisters and two nieces in this city. Miss Minnie Banks and Mrs. Pearly Hatcher. The body was shipped to her home in Lawsville, Tex., for interment in the family lot.

ST. AUGUSTINE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Rev. Wooden, a retired priest of this diocese of Western Missouri, who formerly was a missionary priest to Alaska, celebrated the Holy Communion of St. Augustine Easter at 11:00 o'clock. The attendance was large. The Easter offering was $110.00. Lay service every Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Sunday school at 10:00 o'clock.

EBENEZER A. M. E. CHURCH.

Illustrated sermon Sunday evening. Subject "Pilgrim's Progress," by John Bunion. This subject will be used two Sunday evenings. The second half will be used Sunday night, the 18th. Easter was a great day at Ebenezer. The choir rendered the best Easter music ever heard in this church. It was to a packed house at 11 a. m. that Prof. Work and his songsters simply swept us off of our feet with their superb cantata, "The Raising of the Ruler's Daughter."... At 7:30 the Sunday school with Mrs. Anna Roberts, superintendent, rendered their Easter program. It was proclaimed by all to be superb to anything they had ever witnessed in Kansas City. The officers and pastor as well as members now see that we built too small to take care of our enormous crowds that pack the church to the doors.

All B. Y. P. U. s and churches located throughout the states of Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, are hereby given notice that the fourth Sunday in April, is set apart as "Red Letter Day" for our national work. The program committee of the various B. Y. P. U. s are asked to arrange special programs for that day. Let every loyal Baptist respond to the crying needs and financial calls of our work on that day. Make remittances not later than Thursday, April 29th, payable to the National B. Y. P. U. Board, Rev. I. T. Mack, District Secretary National B. Y. P. U. Board, Slater, Mo., that you may be given credit for the district. State the name of the association to which your B. Y. P. U. or church belongs and don't fail to give name and proper address of your president and secretary. This is important.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

The funeral of Mr. L. Liggins last Sunday was a very sad one. We extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathies. Mrs. Hattie Brinkley and family extend thanks to their friends for kindness during the recent illness and death of Anderson Brinkley. Mrs. E. J. Hines, 2011 Askew, is very sick and desires her friends to call and see her. She is a faithful worker in the church and Sunday school. The following officers were elected by the Sunday school for the ensuing year: H. J. Spigert, superintendent; first assistant, H. C. Woods; second assistant, Geo. W. Taylor; Secretary, Miss Bloomer Gilham; assistant, Miss Lottie Brinkley; Treasurer, Mrs. T. W. Glenn; Organist, Eva Moore; Librarians, Ruth Barber and Helen Floyd. A surprise party was given Mrs. F. C. Malone, April 2nd, by Mrs. Addie Jones and Mrs. Lena Blackwell and Mr. D. Jones. Mrs. Malone was presented with a beautiful birthday and Easter souvenir by Mrs. Jones. A good time was enjoyed by all.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

The B. Y. P. U. is progressing fine under the leadership of our excellent president, Mr. L. B. Cheeks. Mr. E. W. Thompson's Bible class has for the last two or three Sundays been making an interesting study of the origin, defect, overthrow, descent and mission of Satan. The Sunday school has grown to such a numerical strength that the attendance last Sunday was nearly 200. The Leisure Hour club is still holding interesting meetings every Tuesday night. The Women's Mission Circle meets every Friday night. All are welcome to attend an enjoy a profitable hour. During the Easter services last Sunday the entire day was a continual feast for all lovers of church work by worshipping Death's Conqueror in sermon, talks, recitations, appropriate songs, fervent prayers, and last, but not the least by partaking of the Lord's Supper by such a multitude that there was an insufficient number of wine glasses to accommodate this great host of baptized believers. This Easter day service will be long remembered by this great congregation and all visiting friends. Come again.

FOREST GREEN, MO.

Mrs. Minnie White, the beloved wife of R. W. White, who departed this life March 31, was brought here for burial. The funeral was held from the Baptist church at 1 p. m. and was largely attended by friends and relatives. The floral display was beautiful. Four sisters, seven brothers, a mother and father survive him. Rev. W. H. Davis officiated. There will be a big baptizing and basket meeting the fourth Sunday.

Small Causes of Fierce Wars. Borrowing a tobacco pipe and failing to return it kindled a civil war which lasted for years among the rival races in Pamir and Afghanistan. A dispute as to the relative attractions of snails and vipers as food started fifty years of fighting between Milan and Pisa.

THEY SAY

—That orators may be born but liars are self-made.

—That Jack Johnson got "his" in more ways than one. Savy?

—That Jack Johnson has simply gone the route they all go in time.

—That if you have a kind word for a fellow, let him have it before he dies.

—That a certain prominent lady, who is quite a figure in society suddenly lost three teeth. How?

—That it looks like Republicans can get together everywhere else but the two Kansas cities. Why?

—That there never was a truer saying than "What doth it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

—That there are some people so stingy that they never give up a dime without singing "God be with you 'till we meet again." Gee!

—That if the doors of the Church were opened at all annual sermons there would be more effective work done for God and the race.

—That a white man was chased out of the home of a colored woman last week, clad in nothing but his underwear. What became of his clothes? Ask the police.

Books continue to come to the association. A complete set of reference books were sent in this week from an unknown friend. Although an additional bookcase was given by the young people of the Second Baptist church, still another is now needed. As was expected, the men are thoroughly enjoying this additional privilege, access to the best books obtainable. The liberality of the public, the thorough work of the committee workers, L. A. Knox, Dr. L. E. Baller, Fred Dabney, George S. Ellison, Mrs. John A. Jones and Mrs. Wm. J. Thompson, is highly appreciated by the association.
